Public Housing in Kanagawa Prefecture/Yamato City

神奈川県の県営住宅・大和市の市営住宅

In Kanagawa Prefecture and Yamato City, rental housing is offered for those who are having difficulty finding a place to live because of low income. Houses rented from Kanagawa Prefecture are called "Ken-ei Jyutaku (prefectural housing)". Houses rented from Yamato City are called "Shi-ei Jyutaku (municipal housing)."

- Rent is calculated yearly based on the resident's income, location of housing, age of the building, etc.
- There are some conditions to be met in order to apply.
- Once you move-in, there are various rules you will be required to follow.

Application for Prefectural Housing – Important Notes:

- •Number of applications that can be submitted: One application per household. If you do not follow this rule, all your applications will be invalid.
- •The "application form" and "submitted documents" must contain true information: If false information is found, the application will be disqualified.
- •Family members who can move-in: Only those whose names are entered in the "family field" on the application can move-in. However, children born after applying are permitted. If the family members who will be living with you at the time of moving-in are different from those written on the application, the move-in/application will be canceled.
- •Changing the preferred area (the district you want to move-into): After your application has been accepted, the preferred area cannot be changed.
- •Those who own a home (possess a house) cannot apply. Also, you cannot apply if any of the people you plan to live with (those whose names are entered in "family field") own a house. However, if you are currently selling your house, please consult with us.
- •Please submit residence cards (or documents which can prove the status of residence if you are a foreign national) for all people moving-in in order to examine the admissibility of residence.

♦ A constant application process for Prefectural Housing is offered from April (on a first-come-first-served basis)

When no tenants are found during the regular application period (November of the previous year), Constant application is offered for unoccupied houses.

The "Guidebook for Constant application" for Prefectural Houses is available at Machi-zukuri Somu-ka (Urban Development Facilities General Section) Jyutaku-gakari (Housing Unit) on the 4th floor of the Yamato City Office or Seikatsu engo-ka (Life-supporting Section) on the 3rd floor of the Hoken Fukushi Center Annex. When applying for the "Constant application" for Prefectural Houses, you can generally move-in on a first-come-first-served basis without a lottery.

Do you know about the After School Children's Club?

放課後児童クラブを知っていますか?

Yamato City offers "After School Children's Clubs" to take care of children whose guardians are away from home due to work or illness.

- *The admissibility of enrollment depends on the parents' working conditions, etc.
- *Your child will not be accepted for private reasons or any reason other than what you notified in advance.
- *Because "children's clubs" are not a school or cram school, children are not taught.

♦Eligible children

Children who meet all of the following conditions are eligible for enrollment.

- · Children who have an address in Yamato City and attend elementary school (children planning to move to Yamato City are also eligible)
- · Children whose guardians are away from home due to their guardians' employment, illness or other.
- · Children who are capable of being in a group setting while in the club

♦Dates/Hours

- 1.Mondays Fridays: After school to 7:00 p.m. (Please note that hours will be from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. on school holidays such as summer vacations)
- 2. Saturdays: 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

♦Closed days

Sundays / National Holidays / New Year's Holiday (Dec. 29th – Jan. 3rd) and any additional dates decided by the Mayor of Yamato City

♦Fees

The care fee is 6,300 yen for each child per month.

In addition, there is a Children's Club management fee (snack fee, etc.) of approximately 1,500 yen per month.

- *A reduction/exemption system for the care fee is available. For more information, please contact the Children and Youth Section directly.
- The Children's Club Management Committee is a parent-based organization that engages in exchange between parents, planning/conducting events, collecting snack fees, etc. All parents cooperate.

♦How to apply:

Submit the required documents to the Children and Youth Section. (Please note that only the designated format will be accepted.)

■For enrollment starting April 2024

Submit the documents between November 17th (Friday) and December 1st (Friday), 2023.

- The admission of children who apply within this period will be approved after the admission review-not in the order of reception but in the order of priority. (lower grade children will be approved first)
- · Parents will be informed of the enrollment screening's result by late February.
- · If you apply after the application period mentioned above, you may not be able to use the service from the desired starting date. (The enrollment screening for late applicants will begin after the completion of screenings for those who apply within the application period.)

■For enrollment continuing from 2023

Parents whose children are already enrolled in an after-school children's club in Yamato City in 2023 and want to continue enrollment in 2024 should submit application documents to the children's club your child currently attends.

- · Receptions hours at each children's club are from 1:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m.
- · Children's clubs will not accept applications outside of the submission period (Friday, November 17th, 2023 to Friday, December,1st, 2023). If you wish to apply after this submission period, submit to the Children and Youth Section.

♦How to obtain application forms:

- · Application forms are distributed at each children's club and at the Children and Youth Section.
- · Application forms can also be downloaded from the Yamato City website, but there are some forms that cannot be downloaded. We apologize for the inconvenience. The forms can be picked up at Children's Clubs and the Children and Youth Section.
